

Standard Guide for Minimum Training Requirements for Examiners Conducting Psychophysiological Detection of Deception (PDD) Testing of Sex Offenders in Treatment, Probation or Other Similar Programs¹

This standard is issued under the fixed designation E2163; the number immediately following the designation indicates the year of original adoption or, in the case of revision, the year of last revision. A number in parentheses indicates the year of last reapproval. A superscript epsilon (ϵ) indicates an editorial change since the last revision or reapproval.

1. Scope

1.1 This guide establishes the minimum training required for PDD examiners engaged in the psychophysiological detection of deception (PDD) examinations for applications with individuals in treatment, or probation or parole for sex offenses.

5. Minimum Requirements for a Qualifying Curriculum for PDD Testing of Sex Offenders

5.1 The required number of minimum hours of advanced special training to qualify for sex offender testing is 40 h in accordance with Guide E2062.

5.2 A minimum of 24 h of training must be in the primary area of sex offender PDD testing to include:

5.2.1 Techniques of sexual history disclosure testing,

5.2.2 Techniques of specific offense issue testing,

5.2.3 Techniques of maintenance testing,

5.2.4 Techniques of monitoring testing,

5.2.5 Instruction in validated PDD testing formats,

5.2.6 Pretest interview procedures and formats,

5.2.7 Use of PDD examinations as required by Guide E2080 in the treatment and supervision process, and

5.2.8 Appropriate legal requirements or restrictions.

5.3 A minimum of 16 h of specialized training must be given on topics which directly relate to the treatment and supervision of the sex offender. The topics shall include, but are not limited to:

5.3.1 Behavior and motivation of sex offenders,

5.3.2 Trauma factors associated with victims or survivors of sexual assault,

5.3.3 Overview of the assessment and treatment modalities for sex offenders, and

5.3.4 Sex offender denial.

5.4 Instructors in course material related to PDD testing must meet the minimum ASTM standards of a primary instructor for a PDD basic course as required by Guide E2000. Additionally, that instructor shall possess professionally recognized expertise in sex offender testing.

5.4.1 All instructors of sex offender testing courses relating to treatment and supervision shall be qualified by appropriate credentials and experience in the areas of their instruction. They need not be PDD examiners.

6. Sex Offender Testing Course Admission and Certification Requirements

6.1 All PDD examiners attending the polygraph instruction portion of a sex offender testing course of instruction must be graduates of a basic polygraph examiner training course meeting the minimum requirements set forth in Guide E2000.

6.2 Non-PDD examiners who are involved in the clinical treatment and supervision of sex offenders may attend the sex offender testing course but will not be eligible to be certified to practice as PDD examiners, as a result of attending this course.

6.3 Evidence of PDD training should be documented by the provider of the instruction and furnished to the persons receiving this PPD training by diploma, letter or transcript setting forth the following minimum information:

6.3.1 Name, address, and location of the training,

6.3.2 Name of the instructor or instructor(s) providing the instruction along with a resume of the instructor(s),

6.3.3 Date(s) of training and name of the person receiving the training, and

6.3.4 Number of hours of training broken down by curriculum or subject matter and appropriate course outline(s).

7. Keywords

7.1 advanced PDD training; continuing education; forensic psychophysiology; maintenance or monitoring examinations; PDD examinations; polygraph examiner; sexual history disclosure examinations
