National foreword

This British Standard is the official English language version of EN 14916:2005.

The UK participation in its preparation was entrusted to Technical Committee CW/9, Cooking and catering containers, which has the responsibility to:

- aid enquirers to understand the text;
- present to the responsible international/European committee any enquiries on the interpretation, or proposals for change, and keep UK interests informed;
- monitor related international and European developments and promulgate them in the UK.

A list of organizations represented on this committee can be obtained on request to its secretary.

Foreword

This European Standard (EN 14916:2005) has been prepared by Technical Committee CEN/TC 194 "Utensils in contact with food", the secretariat of which is held by BSI.

This European Standard shall be given the status of a national standard, either by publication of an identical text or by endorsement, at the latest by May 2006, and conflicting national standards shall be withdrawn at the latest by May 2006.

According to the CEN/CENELEC Internal Regulations, the national standards organizations of the following countries are bound to implement this European Standard: Austria, Belgium, Cyprus, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hungary, Iceland, Ireland, Italy, Latvia, Lithuania, Luxembourg, Malta, Netherlands, Norway, Poland, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and United Kingdom.

Introduction

European draft standards on safety and performance requirements for items of cookware are currently under study. These drafts are related to cookware for use on top of a stove, cooker or hob, to cookware for use on induction plates, to ovenware and to cookware for microwave ovens.

In these drafts, it is required that cookware or its packaging be labelled with information on the heating source types for which the products are suitable.

The aim of the present document is to establish graphical symbols which should be used for this purpose.

1 Scope

This European Standard specifies graphical symbols to be placed on cookware or its packaging to inform the consumer about the heating sources for which the products have been designed.

2 Terms and definitions

For the purposes of this European Standard, the following term and definition applies.

2.1

graphical symbol (pictogram)

visually perceptible figure with a particular meaning used to transmit information independently of language

3 General

Any graphical symbol (pictogram) shall be reproduced large enough to be clearly visible and readable.

NOTE For basic principles for graphical symbols for use on equipment see EN 80416-1.
